On-field

Paul Cooper

Returned to the Club after his AFL career and took us back to A Grade with his quiet confidence and genuine approach turning young men into young footballers. .

Damian Toohey

Courageous, dashing defender. Inspirational club captain.

Tim Silvers

Lynchpin of the back-line year after year. Ever reliable and great contesteer against bigger opponents

Craig Swift

Dependable and classy. Very agile for a tall defender or forward who even played wing.

Andrew Mackintosh

Magnificent and courageous leader, dashing rebounder. De La Salle greatest of his era.

Drew Jackson

Classy key position defender who left us too early.

Adam Elliott

Pacy and athletic half-back or winger. Brilliant on his day, suffered from injury over many years.

Jeff Morel

Pacy and prolific ball-winner on his day. Devastating runs could carve up opposition teams.

Blair Robertson

A brilliant shooting star for one season. Prodigious kick.

Damian Crowe

Super quick and damaging wingman who had great strength. Ran long distances

Matthew Chun

Always a solid contributor who could play in many positions. Clever and calculating in the contests.

Matthew Goodier

Spasmodic forward who saves his best for the big occasion. Great strength and persistence.

Phil Brasher

Consistent performer over a long period. Never let his team mates down.

Leigh Harrison

Talented but enigmatic. Brilliant in all three games in 2003 finals. Excellent ability to stay with the ball.

Ben Mannix

Another freakish performer who saves his best for the big occasion, and his best is sensational.

Shane Hyland

The Iceman – brave, talented and versatile. Rarely out of the best when fit.

Ben Corin

Versatile key-position player who rucked strongly when required. Longest kick in competition.

Andy Evans

The thinking man's footballer. Clever, damaging on-baller and consistent goal-kicker

Rob Bonnici

Diminutive rover. None deserves the title Captain Courageous more than him. The heartbeat of the team.

Peter Harrison

Determined and courageous on-baller and tagger. Great character, a future club leader.

Michael Duggan

Pacy and classy small man who can play forward or back. Devastating around goal on his day.

Jarrold Moloney

Young gun who excels on a wing with courage and exciting overhead skills. Also a dangerous forward.

Ryan Sherman

Young player with an exciting future as a dashing, pacy half-back or winger.

Off-field

Patrick Mc Conville

Has lifted the performance off the field to a new level and ensured a solid financial base for the club by his outstanding leadership.

Colin Glover

Statistician Extraordinaire, Col has been the rock upon which De La's strong administration has been built in the last 10 years.

Loretta Crowe

Has been the outstanding "numbers" person overseeing the financial success of the McConville Administration. Put her hand to anything to help our club.

John Corin

On a Saturday and during the week he is always contributing. No job is too difficult and his warm nature is vital to the spirit of the club.

Greg Spithill

Solid back up of the football side to Pat McConville. Outstanding worker and a real contributor in every area of the club.

John Bolt

Another outstanding performer in many areas, stood the test of time. Has been a key person in the improvement of the facilities at the home ground.
